

Equity in Action Training Series

Berkeley Schools Volunteers

2020-2021

Session 1 - Foundations in Trauma: Understanding Trauma to Better Support Your Students

Mon, October 26: 4:00-5:30pm on Zoom

Register HERE (Zoom link will be sent to all registered participants in advance)

Description: This interactive workshop will provide you with a basic understanding of how trauma affects learning and behavior – with attention focused on identifying trauma-impacted student behavior, and learning trauma-responsive skills.

*Please be advised that we will briefly discuss various types of traumas that may trigger an emotional reaction for some.

Presenter: Jennifer Lynn-Whaley, PhD, School-based Trauma Educator, Researcher, & BUSD Parent

Session 2 – Crossing Differences: Cultural Competence for School Volunteers

Wed, November 18: 4:00-5:30pm on Zoom

Register HERE (Zoom link will be sent to all registered participants in advance)

Description: Coming soon!

Presenter: Pamela Harrison Small is an educational consultant and long-time BUSD equity leader/trainer at school site and district levels. Both she and her children are graduates of Berkeley's public schools.

Session 3 – Racial Microaggressions in Education

Mon, December 7: 4:00-5:30pm on Zoom

Register HERE (Zoom link will be sent to all registered participants in advance)

Description: Coming soon!

Presenter: Pamela Harrison Small is an educational consultant and long-time BUSD equity leader/trainer at school site and district levels. Both she and her children are graduates of Berkeley's public schools.